Just buy it!

By Kris

I obtained 100 marks for my DELF A1 exam and I am very picky about the books I buy. So I did quite a bit of research before I purchased this A2 book. This A2 book is perfect if you are dead serious about passing with flying colors.

Just one thing to consider: since this book is a French edition, everything, including the explanations, is written in French. That, in fact, is not a problem for me because I want to learn French as fast as possible. You also have to note that the actual exam is also totally in French: there won't be any instructions in English. So in my view, it is a good idea to get used to reading the instructions in French before the exam.

I strongly recommend this book. There are more than enough exercises for each section of the exam, and the exercises are fun to do. This book really covers the exam thoroughly. The authors of this book have made sure that they have covered all the potential questions that may appear in the exam.

The cover of the book may look boring but don't be deceived. The layout of the book with its delightful graphics make it pleasing to the eye.

If you are an adolescent, you need to sit for the Junior Scolaire exam. The Junior Scolaire book by the same publisher is also excellent. Here is the title: ABC Delf Junior: Livre de l'Eleve + CD (French Edition).

Like I said earlier, if you are serious about acing your exam, this book should certainly be in your arsenal. In fact, I bought both the adult and the Junior Scolaire versions for I really want to score 100 again!

My advice to you: just go ahead and buy it!
