About the Author

A teacher, a motivator and an enthusiast for peace. These are just a few of the words attributable to the makings of Starmel Allah. He uses knowledge of self which he has had for over 18 years to bring to fruition the altruistic words and teachings that he has inherently garnered through the prophetic words of Allah's Five Percent Nation. A catalyst for change, he lives his life for the good of spreading the need for greater responsibility and accountability throughout the lives of himself and others. With the words penned in The Righteous Way , Starmel hopes to materialize a light to the dimmed premise of need for change, the position for accepting only whole truths that are supported by scientific backing as well as, keeping people informed and connected on what the current state of the community possesses. The goal of his works are simple, to produce knowledge of self, achieve universal consciousness, community empowerment and peace!

A Righteous Representation

By Ibn

As someone who experienced first hand the youth culture generated by the 5%ers in the 70's and 80's in New York, I was pleasantly surprised that The Righteous Way not only reawakened long forgotten memories for me, but also offered keen insight into the social dynamics that served to crystallized the most popular and influential youth movement following the retreat of youth from both the civil rights and black power movements in America.

Starmel Allah removes the mystique of the 5% Nation to reveal a recognizable face, it's humane heart and creative hands. He offers a encouraging alternative to previous distortions written by lazy news journalist and malicious enemies. This book is filled with first hand historical accounts from members in their own words, explanations of 5% philosophy, documentation of legal battles and numerous community photos.

If you want to gain an inside look into the 5% nation's history, teachings and aims, read The Righteous Way.
